Firm would 'trash' contract

By Bill Bagby
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — The city's trash and sludge hauler, Laidlaw Waste Systems, wants to be paid more than its $700,000 contract.

Laidlaw officials want the contract changed to add fees imposed in recent state legislation, said David Hauser, Laidlaw division manager. The legislation charges a tax of 45 cents per cubic yard on all solid waste received by licensed Illinois landfills.

"FURTHER, Madison County and St. Clair County will charge an additional 22¢ cents per cubic yard, which will be placed into a fund that will provide money for a variety of waste projects," Hauser said in a Jan.

27 letter to Mayor Von Dee Cruse.

When the contract was bid in 1983, Hauser said normal increases were considered.

"However, we did not anticipate and could not foresee these additional taxes being imposed upon us by the state and county," he said.

IF THE CITY refuses to re-negotiate, Hauser said in a Jan. 27 letter to Mayor Von Dee Cruse.

Auto shop plan put in high gear

By Dave Gosnell
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — The Board of Education is on the verge of approving construction of a new automotive shop at the high school. The new shop would be part of an overall "master plan" for the high school and Coolidge Junior High School.

At the board's Tuesday meeting, the director of buildings and grounds, Ron Landman, recommended the board accept plans to build a shop costing about $250,000. He also recommended the board accept a plan drawn up by architect Henry Gabriel that would locate future building sites.

THE EIGHT-BAY shop would be built as an addition to the high school's carpentry shop and other vocational classrooms. Resurfacing and expanding several parking lots at the high school and Coolidge are also part of the plan.

Preliminary estimates for the changes, which would include a new exit, are about $663,000, according to a report to board members by Landman.

The plan would include expanding the parking lots at Coolidge and in front of the high school gymnasium and adding a new exit at the gymnasium.

The gym parking lot, which many students use, would allow for 237 car spaces instead of 120. The Coolidge lot would be expanded from about 50 spaces to 152, Landman said.

THE PROJECT would be paid for from money gained from the sale of four district schools — Granite City High School North, Johnson, Emerson and Washington schools, said the district's financial director, Norm Owca.

If it is approved, the shop is expected to be completed by the end of the year.

Chamber asks board for help

By Dave Gosnell
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — The School Board was invited to join in this area's economic development, but took no action on the request.

Merits of becoming an active member of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce were presented to the board Tuesday. The presentation was made by RC Bush, chamber executive vice president, and Tom Holloway, president.

Both advocated the School Board join the chamber as dues-paying members and that the board become active in various chamber committees.

"You can't have community development without cooperation," Holloway said. A cooperative spirit has developed between the chamber and the Granite City Council, Holloway said.

"Our request is $250 a month and your board representation. We need you," Bush said.

In a later interview, Bush said other public bodies such as the city and county should also join the chamber.

Chief on Major Case Squad

By Bill Bagby
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — Police Chief Bill Harris was elected last week to the board of directors of the Major Case Squad of Greater St. Louis.

Harris was elected Friday to the 19-member board along with Donald McDonald, police chief in Rock Hill, Mo. Harris, who replaces former Madison County Sheriff Emil Toffant, said he was pleased with his election to the board.

The board, Harris said, sets policy for the more than 300 members of the squad. It's also involved in organizing an annual two-day training session in may for squad members, he said. Harris and Alton Police Chief Don Sandage represent Madison County on the board. Three members are from St. Clair County, Harris said.

The Granite City Police Department rejoined the squad last April, shortly before the murders of Carl and Susan Hoffman. The Major Case Squad participated in investigating the murders.

Harris said seven members of his department are members of the squad.

Boxcar homes sidetracked

By Valerie Evenden
Staff writer

VENICE — Conversion of boxcars into residential units in Venice was temporarily sidetracked Tuesday night by the City Council.

A request from Alurt Truck Leasing Co., 1601 Market St., Madison, for approval of building permits to locate five boxcar residential units in the 600 block of Fillmore Avenue, near Seventh Street, was tabled when several aldermen raised questions about other boxcars in the city.

TEN BOXCARS to be situated on the Fillmore tract will be converted into five duplex housing units, the permit request said. Each duplex was valued at $30,000.

Six permits were issued in 1985 to Alurt Truck Leasing, owned by Gerald Moss of Madison, for twin boxcars converted into residences in the 1500 block of Market Street, Venice.

Third Ward Alderman John Ervin mentioned the Market Street property and questioned the total number of building permits issued to the Alurt trucking firm.

"DO THEY HAVE permits for all those up there and are they all in the City of Venice?" Ervin asked.

"I know he has over a dozen (boxcars) up there," Alderman Charles Haynes Sr. said. Third Ward Alderman George Lewis concurred, but added, "Some are just sitting off to one side. Only those he's working on have permits, I think."

MAYOR TYRONE ECHOLS said the 1500 block of Market Street is divided on an angle by the corporate boundaries of Venice and Madison. About 40 per-

MESD given more money for repairs

By Dave Gosnell
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — Metro East Sanitary District has more money to repair its East St. Louis pump station.

MESD will get $300,000 from the Department of Housing and Urban Development's discretionary fund, the district learned Friday.

A FAILED GATE, which gave way to the Mississippi River on Oct. 4 and allowed $18 million in flood damage to East St. Louis, is one of two sluice gates to be replaced with the money.

State and federal funds for MESD since the flood total about $1.2 million. The money is covering emergency costs from the flood and electrical system repairs at the station.

MESD Director Shang Greathouse said he was glad to get the notice, but said if the station had been repaired before the flood, $1.2 million could have been saved.

"THAT'S WHAT happens when you don't have enough money to do what you need to do," Greathouse said.

A report prepared for MESD before the flood estimated that about $200,000 was needed to repair the East St. Louis station.

Greathouse has said MESD cannot pay for all district repairs, which are put at $23 million.

Because of unsatisfactory ratings given by the Army Corps of Engineers to five of the district's 13 pumping stations, the Federal Emergency Management Agency may re-evaluate the district's certification as an approved flood protection system. Re-evaluation is expected by the end of the year.

HAPPY AS CAN BE, 1-week-old Shantae Michele is held by her mother, Robin Crowder. The infant's birth was assisted born by Campbell Ambulance Service EMTs minutes after Crowder was placed into the ambulance.

Baby born in ambulance

By Donna Kimbro
Staff writer

Several "firsts" occurred when a baby was born in Madison.

"First" child when nature began to take its course at about 6 a.m. on Feb. 11.

She had started labor at about midnight and though she said the pains were not too bad, the 22-year-old mother knew she needed help.

Robin's mother, Barbara Crowder, called Campbell Ambulance Service.

The ambulance arrived shortly before 6:30 a.m. to transport Robin to St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

Robin had stood on the parking lot of Greiner Homes, where she resides, waiting for the ambulance.

The EMTs were called upon to perform a "first" for them — delivering an anxious infant.

"This situation made us very nervous since it was a first for both of us, a first for the Campbell Ambulance Service in Madison, and a first in Madison," Robertson said. "I checked with the former Madison Fire Department Volunteer Ambulance Service and was told they were never called upon to deliver a baby."

"I guess the men were very nervous because they first told me I had a boy, but I found out later I was the mother of a 6 pound, 14 ounce girl," Robin said. "They were almost right on the weight as they told me the baby weighed about 6 pounds."

"The men were very good with me and one stayed in the ambulance with me all the time," she said. "I was in the hospital within minutes."

The mother and child are doing fine.

Families of Scouting are going to hold a telephone telethon March 3, 4, and 5 between 6 and 9 p.m., to raise money to help support the Cahokia Mound Boy Scout Council's expenses.

The cost is approximately $98 per youth per year to keep the scouting program alive. There are more than 3,000 youths in the area served by the Cahokia Mound Council, a spokesman said. About half of the required operating costs are provided by the United Way, trust income, sale of supplies, and activity income. The balance must come from volunteer supporters.

THE LAW AND YOU

BY RICK REED
Attorney At Law

Sometimes employers will deny workers' compensation benefits to an employee hurt on the job. Their rationale in a given case may be that the injury was not one sustained "in the course of" the person's employment. Whether an injury sustained during the employee's lunch hour is "in the course of" employment depends upon the facts of each particular case.

Under Illinois law, the most critical factor is the location of the employee at the time of the injury. Generally, accidents which occur during the scheduled lunch hour on the company premises are considered to be in the course of one's employment. However, where an employee exposes himself to an unnecessary and unreasonable risk, the employer will not be held liable unless it had knowledge or acquiesced in the activity.

In one recent case, a glass company employee was injured while constructing a partition booth as a personal project during his lunch hour. The employee did not realize that the company had previously used the barrel to store gasoline. Contrary to company policy, employees, including supervisors and foremen, often took the barrels for their personal use and made various personal articles using company materials. However, the acting foreman did not know of the work being done on the barrels by this employee.

In another case, a supermarket employee was injured when he tripped and fell while carrying a frisbee in the company parking lot during his lunch hour. Here the night crew manager turned on the parking lot lights for the employees, and he often played frisbee with them.

The question is whether the workers' injuries were "in the course of" their employment. Both injuries occurred on company premises, but each Court ruled differently. In the "barrel case," the Court denied benefits to the employee. The Court felt that the company did not acquiesce in the use of the barrels. Additionally, the company could not foresee that one of its employees would apply a welding torch to one of its barrels. That conduct was simply unreasonable. In the "frisbee case," the Court held the company liable. There the company not only acquiesced, but also participated in the lunch hour games. Since the games were not an unnecessary and unreasonable risk, the injury was sustained "in the course of" employment.

Flood rating makes waves

When the dike leaks, it's time to buy flood insurance.

For parts of Granite City, Venice, Madison and other communities, that time is coming. The Mississippi River would flow into several area communities if not for safeguards managed by Metro East Sanitary District. But the district, up to its neck in complaints after the Mississippi sneaked into East St. Louis homes via the sewer system in October, is wading through a new wave of criticism that it's anti-flood network is inadequate.

To area residents, this "leak in the dike" could force a choice between buying flood insurance or gambling that their property won't be lost in the next flood, or the one after that.

Future and present businesses are also threatened. No new developer would locate in an area that could flood, and established businesses might move if the risk or insurance rates prove too great.

The problem is that a branch of the Federal Emergency Management Agency found five of MESD's 13 pump stations in unsatisfactory condition. Because the stations have various problems, MESD could lose certification as an anti-flood system. Federal and state funding was issued to fix the East St. Louis pumping station after the October flood, but four stations still need repairs estimated at $1.4 million—an amount equal to 70 percent of the district's $2 million annual budget.

MESD must chart a new course for dealing with its problems. The state and federal governments have provided help, but they can't be expected to bail out the district.

Consider that the pumping stations are only part of the problem amid a flood of others—$20 million in all. Quick-fix, patchwork measures merely allow or permit the system to wallow in continuous deterioration.

Though perhaps an unpopular opinion, before the district sinks too far under, it should consider bringing its case to the people.

Aid should be real help

Welfare proposals by Rep. Ron Stephens of Caseyville (and Granite City) and Gov. James Thompson should be merged and given early consideration by legislators. It is essential that Illinois—and other states—find ways to give real help to poor people, rather than encouraging them to lead unproductive lives.

Stephens introduced a bill Feb. 4 requiring public aid recipients 18 or older to have a high school diploma or continue working toward a General Educational Development (GED) certificate of equivalency.

His idea is to encourage those on welfare to get the education that could enable them to find employment and escape the welfare and poverty cycle, which has tended to extend from one generation to the next. The proposed law would not apply to persons physically or mentally incapacitated, nor would it affect the elderly.

In calling for high priority for welfare revisions, the governor is able to cite Project Chance training has led to jobs for 40,000 and covers the broadest category of recipients in the nation. And our state has moved boldly to assure that non-custodial parents who fail to pay for child support are brought into compliance through court orders; Illinois has gone from the bottom of all states in recovering child support for dependent mothers to 12th best in 1986 and a projected 6th best this year. As Thompson sees it:

"Recipients must learn and work for their grant, not just exist. Those moving from dependency to independence must be able to cross that bridge over sturdy planks of medical care and day care.

"But it is not right to encourage dependency by benefit levels that make informed choice of family size irrelevant, or that give greater benefits to those who do not work than to those who pay for them, and their own, by working or going without.

"Welfare, except for keeping people alive, sustaining existence, is a multi-billion-dollar failure that is immoral and unaffordable."

It's deja vu, once again

Forgive us for our feeling of deja vu, but it is hard to hear a new "merit selection of judges" proposal without recalling the many earlier calls for merit judge selection in Illinois since Year 1.

But hope springs eternal, and proponents say an appointed judiciary has a good chance of getting Assembly approval this year for a proposed 1988 Illinois constitutional amendment. A task force of lawyers, judges, politicians and business leaders is preparing a specific plan.

It is not surprising that the idea of ending judge elections has attracted broader support these days. Problems include the Democratic dominance of Madison County courts and the "Greyhound" court scandals in Chicago, where more than 40 persons have been convicted.

Joining the governor at a press conference, Chief Justice Bill Clark of the Illinois Supreme Court said, "I don't know of any corrupt judges on the bench today. Let's hope those who were corrupt have been eliminated." But Chicago Bar President Joe Stone said, "Continuing corruption indicates it's time for Illinois to emerge from the Dark Ages." And Illinois State Bar President Richard Thies said, "Events in Cook County, including the election last November of a judicial candidate facing possible federal prosecution, demonstrate that elections are the least desirable method of selecting judges."

There is no way to avoid human influence on the process, of course. As in many past years, the key question is whether candidates can best be evaluated by voters, by the governor, or by some kind of expert panel.

Leaders ignore public on new housing rules

To the editor: Well, our City Council did it. They passed the controversial housing ordinance in spite of overwhelming public response to the contrary. It has always been my understanding that our elected officials' job was to reflect and do the will of the people. Lately, be it federal, state or local level, the "will of the people" seems to have little to do with how said officials cast their vote on any issue.

So, I hope all of you took note of who voted for this ordinance and who didn't. I live in Mr. Paul Fisk's ward and I will not be voting for him this time. If we elect these people again we deserve what we get.

Students favor Wolf's 'BAC' election bill

To the editor: Many Belleville Area College students are supporting legislation proposed by Rep. Sam Wolf, D-Granite City, that would change how trustees are elected to community college board districts.

House Bill 143 would let boards divide districts into segments that are "compact, contiguous and substantially equal in population."

Frances Braswell, Robert Dintelmann, Curt Eckert and Elizabeth Jenner, all of them BAC trustees, were receptive to Wolf's proposal.

"The way it is now," Eckert said, "you get a minority group, get out and work real hard and elect a majority to the board. I don't feel that's fair to everyone in the district."

"I can certainly see the validity of it," Jenner said. "I think it has merit." People in St. Clair County should be aware of legislative measures that can have a direct effect on their college representation. These measures should fairly include all voters in the BAC district.

Do not change our farm policy

To the editor: Congressional farm policy makers began their latest session by saying they won't make major changes in the 1985 farm bill. Their assurances have a hollow ring.

Patrick Leahy, the senate's new agriculture chairman, said the bill has only been tested for a matter of months. He insisted his committee would not make major changes in it in 1987.

Three days later, Leahy said changes in the wheat and feed grain programs would be necessary. And so it goes. If policy makers resisted changing the rules, the farm economy could see enough stability to allow farmers to begin to climb out of the rut they've been in.

Some continuity in policy would be a refreshing change, and long overdue. In January, delegates to the American Farm Bureau Federation's annual meeting cautioned Congress and the Reagan administration to avoid drastic farm policy changes. While noting current policy is not perfect, Farm Bureau leaders insisted that it be given time to work.

We hope politicians have gotten the message. But there's no firm assurance that they will stay on course.

Beware the intellectuals

Intellectuals separate us into three categories.

At a "lower level" are people who talk about others. They feed on tabloids and scandal columns. The next level includes people concerned with "things." They preoccupy themselves with houses, cars, jewelry, etc.

The "upper level" includes people concerned with "ideas." Intellectuals, intellectuals insist, are the only ones worth listening to.

Author Paul Johnson's intellectual commands respect from the intelligentsia but he does not return respect. He is convinced that intellectuals "love the idea of humanity" but do not necessarily love the actual individuals who compose it.

Mrs. Billy Graham has said Billy's greatest weakness is his greatest strength. Lacking the academic credentials of his theological peers has kept him in touch "with people."

Angel, my wife, has a foundation for helping unwanted and mistreated animals.

Intellectual friends applaud the "idea" but it is grass-roots, caring folks who support it. Intellectuals tend to be concerned, in theory about "endangered species"—not suffering of individual animals.

Intellectual clergy generously support the "idea" of far-flung missions, but are less willing to serve soup to neighborhood needy.

Most intellectuals "love humanity" but not necessarily men and women.

Paul Johnson recently told the Institute for Contemporary Studies that "insensitivity to the needs and views of other people is, indeed, a characteristic of those passionately concerned with ideas."

He calls it "the heartlessness of ideas."

Karl Marx was another who put ideas before people, emotionally and financially exploiting his wife, daughters, friends. Lenin, a library socialist, never set foot in a factory until he became a dictator.

These, for the sake of their own "ideas," were willing to impose all manner of violence on nonconforming people.

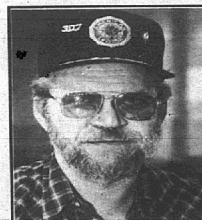

Johnson says, "Beware the intellectuals. Keep them well away from the levers of power."

Should VA suffer cut?

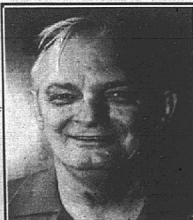

President Ronald Reagan has proposed a significant cut in the Veterans Administration's budget for fiscal 1988. The cut would eliminate free hospital and nursing home care for veterans who have hospitalization insurance or who are financially able to pay for care. It would also eliminate non-service-related illnesses or injuries. Veterans were asked what they thought of the president's plan.

Gary Swift,
Legion Post 307
"Veterans shouldn't be singled out for a budget cut. If the budget has to be cut, it should be across the board."

Frank Misturak,
Amvets Post 204
"I'm against it. There's a lot of other things he (Reagan) could cut. We fought for this country. That's all I can depend on for medical care."

Bob Kennerly,
D.A.V. Chapter 53
"As I see it, let's give these guys (veterans) what they deserve. We got shot up or injured fighting for this country. Why doesn't the country recognize these veterans and take care of them?"

Price to pitch cane

U.S. Rep. Melvin Price, D-Belleville, was released from Malcolm Grow Medical Center at Andrews Air Force Base Feb. 12. The 82-year-old Democrat entered the facility almost one month ago to undergo a knee joint replacement operation.

They tell me my recovery has been better than expected. Price said. I'll be ready to throw this cane away in a month.

Price had started using a cane in late 1986 because of the pain he was experiencing in his right knee due to an arthritic deterioration of the joint.

Matthew 27:22 "What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ?"

Everyone on the earth who has heard about Jesus dying for their sins, has to ask himself this question at some point in their life. How you answer will make the decision about where you will spend eternity. It will be the most important decision you will ever make.

Life after death is a reality. We will spend eternity in heaven or in hell. There is no in between. What have you done with this man, Jesus? Have you let him cleanse you from your sin? Has He mended your broken heart? Have you let him impart his peace unto you? Have you allowed Him to heal the sickness that sin has caused in your body?

A new life is only one prayer away and eternity is forever. Call on Him. Today!

date for help at TASC

Motorists convicted of driving while under the influence in Madison County have a date with TASC.

Through an arrangement with the Circuit Court, TASC provides alcohol and drug abuse evaluations of all DUI offenders before disposition of their cases. Such evaluations are required by the state's DUI law.

The organization also monitors any educational or treatment program a judge may order in sentencing an offender. TASC Inc. — the acronym stands for Treatment Alternatives to Street Crime — is a private, Chicago-based, not-for-profit organization established in the 1970s to evaluate non-violent criminal offenders for the courts.

In Madison and three other Illinois counties (St. Clair, Sangamon and Winnebago), the organization now also evaluates DUI offenders.

Philip J. Rarick, chief judge of the 3rd Judicial Court, said there are several agencies in the county which are state-certified to assess alcohol and drug abuse.

Rarick said he and judges who were handling DUI cases decided to designate TASC for evaluations of offenders for reasons of consistency and TASC's willingness to evaluate any offender regardless of ability to pay.

TASC charges an offender $100 for an evaluation. Offenders are asked to pay as much as they can before evaluation and, for those who need it, a payment plan will be set up, said Mildred Brooke, coordinator for TASC's Region 3.

In fact, the agency does not always receive full payment for evaluations, Brooke said, although she was unable to say what percentage of offenders did not make full payment.

We won't refuse to serve people, Brooke said. While TASC assesses alcohol and drug abuse problems, any educational or treatment program ordered by the court must be provided by a different agency, said Rarick.

CASSETTE TAPES STOLEN
Richard Rash, 2541 Buenger Blvd., told Madison County authorities Feb. 12 a burglar took a cassette tape case containing assorted tapes from his car. Value of the items is $150.ROCKS THROWN, MAN BOOKED
Ramon Fernandez, 32, of Fairmont City was charged Feb. 13 by Granite City police with disorderly conduct and trespassing. He allegedly threw rocks at a Granite City Steel port hauler truck at 20th Street and Quincy Avenue.HOME BURGLAR TAKES VCR
Evelyn Soomro, 2400 Washington Ave., said Feb. 12 a burglar entered her home and took a video cassette recorder.

We don't want the same agency providing both evaluation and treatment, said Chief Associate Judge Edward G. Ferguson, who handles DUI dockets. He said the judges wanted to avoid any possibility of conflict of interest.

Some defendants have complained about being required to pay TASC $100 before being convicted of any offense, but Ferguson said they are confused. No one who has not been convicted is required to be evaluated or pay TASC anything, he said.

What may concern some, Ferguson said, is the requirement that they be evaluated before being considered for a judicial driving permit, a limited permit to drive while their driver's license is suspended.

The law says a judge cannot issue a driver's permit unless and until he has reviewed a current professional evaluation of the person's use of alcohol or other drugs.

Also, Ferguson said, most lawyers advise their clients to have an evaluation done as early as possible to expedite disposition of cases for the clients' benefit.

Ferguson added that any defendant not satisfied with the TASC evaluation may obtain an evaluation from another certified provider and have it considered by the court. He emphasized that TASC recommendations are not mandatory.

Brooke said TASC uses an objective, standardized test as well as its own assessment methods to assess alcohol problems. Among factors taken into account are driving records, other arrests and health, family and employment matters.

Offenders are classified into three levels of alcohol use: non-problematic, problematic or alcohol-dependent.

In general, alcohol education programs are recommended for non-problematic users; a combination of education and treatment is recommended for problematic users; and outpatient or residential treatment is recommended for alcohol-dependent persons.

Witnesses said the child ran in front of Duboise's auto on Popes Avenue near Nameoki Road.BOY PLAYING WITH MATCHES CAUSES FIRE IN GARAGE
A fire did $300 damage to a garage at the home of Joe Lee, 2106 E. 24th St., Feb. 12. The fire started in a dumpster on the south side of the garage, authorities said. The blaze spread to the eaves on the roof and into the interior of the garage.

Officers questioned a 9-year-old Granite City boy who said he had been playing with matches near the dumpster.

INSIDE ANKLE PAIN

An eversion sprain in which you turn your foot outward or inside out can send stabbing pains through your ankle. Excessive pronation may strain the tendon running along the inside of the ankle. There may be tendinitis with a posterior shin splint, or strained ligaments on the inside of the foot.

Chronic pronation or eversion pain may radiate up the leg. Standing or walking is painful. A podiatric diagnosis confirms the cause. Initial treatment is R-I-C-E: rest, ice, compression, elevation, taping immobilizes the ankle to speed healing.

Prescribed medication cools the inflamed nerve. Custom-made orthotics reduce strain so you can perform routine tasks with minimal discomfort. Exercises to strengthen and stretch are helpful.

DIURETICS
Anyone taking diuretics or "water pills" for any reason, should be careful to eat foods rich in potassium, such as fresh oranges, bananas, dried apricots or peaches, wheat germ and sunflower seeds. Diuretics have a side effect of causing potassium loss, and sometimes magnesium deficiency. These are trace minerals essential to health.

DAR hosts student Good Citizens Day

The Drusilla Andrews Chapter of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution held its annual Good Citizen Day at Jerry's Cafeteria to honor three high school students.

Mrs. Sandra Wilkinson, regent, presided and welcomed honorees Wakita Walker of Venice High School, Cyndi Brown of Granite City High School, and Alanna Browley of Madison High School.

Everyone recited the flag pledge and Mrs. Wilkinson gave a brief history of the DAR and explained the senior students were selected by their principals, teachers and counselors on the basis of leadership, dependability, service and patriotism.

Mrs. Madge Hanson presented a program entitled "Our Liberty Bells" in which she noted that there are many patriotic bells, the first of these being cast nearly 25 years before the revolutionary period.

"The one we know as the Liberty Bell was cast in England in 1752, but cracked due to amateur bell hangers. It was recast three times with the same tone of E flat in 1753," she said. "The inscription, 'Proclaim Liberty throughout all the Land Unto all the Inhabitants Thereof,' is taken from the Bible, Leviticus 25:10. It is through this that Benjamin Franklin suggested the verse. In 1950-55 bells were cast in France with the exact dimensions of the original."

sions, inscription, tone, and etched crack as the Liberty Bell. They were used by the Treasury Department to promote the Liberty Bond drive and one was given to each state. Ours is on the west side of the State Capitol building in Springfield.

Mrs. Wilkinson expressed appreciation to Mrs. Jane Vanesler, who was in charge of organizing the Good Citizen competition at area schools.

Mrs. Janet Wilson, a member who is the Division VI chairman of the Good Citizen Committee for Illinois, reviewed the citizenship program, which began in 1934. She presented a pin, certificate and copy of "Washington Landmarks" to each student.

Wakita Walker, a senior at Venice High School, is president of Student Council, a varsity cheerleader and member of the business club. She is on the volleyball and softball teams and attended Ilioi Girls State, as well as Lane College in Tennessee, through the Educational Talent Search.

Miss Walker sings in the church youth choir and is a member of the Usher Board.

After serving in the Army Reserves, Wakita plans to major in pre-law in college. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Annie L. Thurman.

The Granite City honoree, Cyndi Brown, is a member of the Science and Photography Clubs, Red Peppers and SADD, and is vice president of the Foreign Language Club.

Miss Brown spent a year in West Germany through Rotary's International Youth Exchange. She is active in St. Margaret Mary Church and teaches piano and organ lessons. Attending the dinner with her were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brown, and her sister, Rene.

Cyndi plans to major in social work in the area of drug and alcohol abuse after high school.

Representing Madison High School, Alanna Browley is the senior class secretary and was class vice president for three years. She has been involved in sports and band and was the Homecoming Queen in 1986. She has been vice president of the Future Secretary Association and an honor roll student. She serves her church by singing in the choir and as a junior usher.

Miss Browley plans to study computer science in the Air Force. With her at the dinner were her mother, Mrs. Vera Browley, and her sister, Sharon.

Members in attendance were Mrs. Emma Schoen, Miss Ella Ray Smith, Mrs. Barbara Williams, Mrs. Linda Koenig and Mrs. Florence Simpson and a prospective member, Mrs. Marie Reinhardt.

More money for SIU

State funds recommended by the Illinois Board of Higher Education to operate SIU for fiscal 1988 total $214.6 million.

The recommendations were reported Feb. 12 by Chancellor Lawrence Pettit to the Board of Trustees.

These recommendations are part of proposals totaling $1.7 billion for higher education in Illinois, an increase of 7.9 percent from fiscal 1987. The recommendations will be submitted to the General Assembly and ultimately to Gov. James Thompson.

Recommended increases for SIU include: salaries, 6 percent; general costs, 3 percent; utility costs, 4 percent; Medicare coverage for new employees, $192,800; library costs, 7 percent; operations and maintenance of new buildings, $106,700; and program and institutional support, $5.9 million.

The chancellor said part of the support for new and expanded programs will come from a self-help adjustment of 3 percent recommended for each university in the state. Statewide, the adjustment will provide $5.5 million in reallocated funds.

By units, the operating budget recommendations, excluding retirement contributions, are: SIUC, $132 million; SIUE, $60.8 million; Office of the Chancellor, $1.8 million. Overall, the recommended increases average 7.48 percent.

Wrestlers go for gold

GRANITE CITY — The time is now.

All the weight work over the summer, all the dual meets, tri-meets and quad meets don't mean a thing now. It's time for the hard work to pay off for four Granite City High School wrestlers.

The Illinois High School Association State Wrestling Tournament begins this evening at the Assembly Hall on the campus of the University of Illinois at Champaign-Urbana. And the Warriors, as always, will be represented.

Granite City didn't advance in team competition this year, but they will send four wrestlers to Champaign in individual competition. Rich Wilson (126 pounds) and Paul Brandt (167) took sectional championships in their weight classes last weekend to go along with regional titles they earned in Cahokia Feb. 7. Brent Davis (98) and Jon Morgan (138) earned second place laurels at Granite City to go with their regional championships. The top three finishers in each weight class at the sectional advanced to state.

The Warrior team finished second at Cahokia to the host Comanches, and Cahokia then won the Granite City Sectional last Tuesday. The Comanches qualified five individuals as well as the team for the state meet.

The state meet is the culmination of high school careers for Brandt, Wilson and Morgan, all seniors, while Davis is just a sophomore.

We don't know the actual drawings yet, so it's hard to say how they will do. Warrior coach Walt Whitaker said Wednesday, "It's a psychological game up there. The kids from this area usually have a tough time. They get paired with the kids from the Chicago area who are part of some good programs."

As sectional champions, Wilson and Brandt will receive first round byes, but they will have their first matches at 5:30 p.m. tonight. Morgan and Davis will be wrestling in the preliminary rounds beginning at 3 p.m.

"I thought at the beginning of the year we had a good chance to send five wrestlers to state," Whitaker said. "I was hoping for those four, and I thought Tracy Morrison might go. He was a little bit of a disappointment, but the knee injury he had late in the year didn't help."

Morrison, a 132-pounder, advanced out of the regional, along with Dave Knogl at 145 pounds, but they couldn't survive the sectional.

Whitaker said Brandt, who has a 31-3 mark this year, would be the best bet to place at the meet. Wilson is 27-9, Morgan is 25-9 and Davis is 29-7. Davis began the year at 105 pounds, but switched back to where he was a freshman sensation, at mid-season.

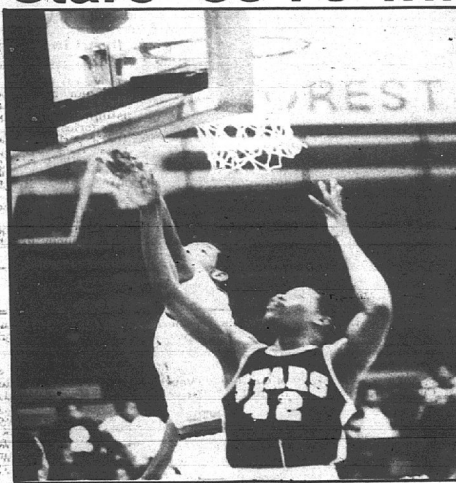

Quarterfinal matches will begin at 8 p.m. tonight, with

Stars' 85-73 win is 5th in a row

PERRY JONES reaches up to block a shot by St. Louis Tuesday night.

ST. LOUIS — Nobody ever promised Terry Collins a bed of roses. So don't blame the Granite City Campus basketball coach for being euphoric now that a few of the buds on his rose petal are starting to blossom.

Tuesday night, the upstart Stars continued their late-season momentum surge as they increased their winning streak to five games with an 85-73 conference win over Forest Park Community College. They are now 11-7.

Last Saturday night, GCC broke its own record for most points scored in a game in a 113-102 overtime victory over Lincoln Land College.

This after a dismal mid-season skid in which the Stars could muster only one win in 13 outings. And to watch the Stars Tuesday night would have been to spot the reason for the large-scale about-face.

Perry Jones, "He's not 100 percent just yet, but he's getting there," Collins said, referring to the 6-3 forward who sat out with a knee injury during the Stars' dry spell. "We went 1-12 when he was out and we're 5-1 with him back. So I think that says a lot for him as a player."

In a somewhat twisted sort of way, however, it appears Jones' stint on the sidelines has worked to GCC's advantage. The young players on the squad were given a crash course in maturity. As a result, newfound offensive sources have developed. Some players have learned to score while others have found their niche as role players.

One of the emerging scoring threats is 6-6 center Don Stevanus, who showed his new wares Tuesday by hitting five-of-six shots from the field and all four attempts from the free throw line en route to a 16-point, eight-rebound performance.

"Don's still learning, but he was one of the main people who really had to come around when Perry went down with the injury," Collins said. "Tonight he played really well. He did a nice job of contributing to our offense."

Point guard Corey Silas is another who has joined Stevanus in the what's-he-doing-in-the-box-score club.

Tuesday night, the sophomore from Madison came away with 16 points, a contribution overshadowed only by his steady quarterbacking of the team's offense.

Midway through the first half, Silas scored five points in a two-minute span to spark a 17-6 Stars run, which turned an 18-17 standoff into a 37-23 walkaway with 4:19 left in the half.

GCC would eventually carry a 45-31 bulge into the halftime intermission.

"Corey really ran the offense pretty well tonight," Collins said. "He took the jumper when it was there and dishd the ball off when there was a better shot to be had."

Venice wins conference with slam dunk festival

By Dave Whaley

Executive sports editor

LIVINGSTON — Ron Hampton said he just put up a new rim on one of the backboards at the Livingston High School gym. It got a heavy-duty testing in its first night of action.

The rim at the west end of the gym was brand new, and the Venice Red Devils launched an all-out assault on the new equipment Wednesday night, exploding for five dunks in the second half and missing connections on the regular season tonight at East St. Louis Assumption.

The victory officially wrapped up another Illini-Gateway Conference title for the Devils as they finished the year at 6-0 in league play. They also got their 20th win of the season against two losses, and they wrap up the regular season tonight at East St. Louis Assumption.

"I just put that rim up yesterday," said Hampton, the Eagle coach. "Venice really gave it a workout tonight. If they are the No. 2 team in the state, then No. 1 (Providence-St. Mel) must be awful good."

Usually the Devil dunks are limited to Jesse Hall, and while he had the first four, the whole team got a case of dunking fever from watching him work. Hall came out of the game after the third quarter with 25 points, eight assists and four slams.

SCORING

VENICE	33	33	19-11
LIVINGSTON	11	18	22-12

VENICE: Hall 25 (8 assists), Turner 18 (8 assists), Wright 15 (8 assists), Jackson 11 (10 rebounds), Bue 9, Wiley 6, Gardner 4, King 3, Marshbanks 2, Love 1. FOGG, FT's, Pts-10.

LIVINGSTON: Pogue 25, Hampton 21, Hettlinger 14, Curry 4, Lott 4, Warren 2. FOGG, FT's, Pts-18.

Then Darrell King, Kevin Gardner and Wilfred Wigfall soon followed with slams of their own. Darrell Buie and Gardner each picked up technical fouls later by grabbing the ring after missed slams, and Lionel Wiley also missed connections on a jam.

"We were feeling kind of loose tonight," said Venice coach Clinton Harris in an understatement. "The Devils wasted little time in taking command as they jumped to a 9-0 lead and never looked back. It was 26-11 after the first quarter and 59-29 at halftime. Venice had a 92-51 lead after three quarters, and Wiley put the Devils over the 100-point mark for the fourth time this year with a pair of free throws with 4:38 left."

The Eagles were the last threat to the Devils' defense of the conference title, as they had only one league loss coming into the game (a 104-83 loss at Venice Dec. 12). The Eagles are now 3-2 in league play and 15-9 overall.

"We do pretty well playing

Warriors face Tigers first; Devils favored at Freeburg

By Dave Whaley

Executive sports editor

The basketball Warriors are doing their best to win the Southwestern Conference, because they know the odds are stacked against them once post-season play begins.

There aren't many teams in the state who will have a tougher time advancing past the first round of the regionals than Granite City. The Warriors have moved out of their usual regional grouping and will face the East St. Louis Lincoln Tigers in their first regional game Tuesday, March 3 at East St. Louis (Sr.) High School.

That game, at 7:30 p.m., is the first game of the East St. Louis Regional. East Side will take on Cahokia in the second game March 4 at 7:30 p.m. Winners of those two games will meet Friday, March 6, at 7:30 p.m. for the regional championship.

It was Laphonso Ellis, James Harris, Chris Rogers and Co. that knocked the Warriors out of last year's post-season party, but that didn't happen until the sectional finals. This time, Don Deterding's club will be thrown to the Tigers, the No. 6 Class AA team in Illinois, right off the bat. They know the odds are stacked against them, but Deterding is hoping lightning can strike.

We know it will be awful tough to beat East Side in their own gym," Deterding said. "And the Lincoln-East Side rivalry is pretty strong. We're just hoping Lincoln might be looking ahead to that game and we can surprise them."

And the Tigers can be beaten, as the Lincoln (Ill.) Raispliters showed at the Collinsville Holiday Tournament. And Laphonso and Co. had trouble with Venice, a Class A team, before beating them in the fourth quarter.

The winner of the East St. Louis Regional will join winners from Alton, Belleville East and Edwardsville at the Collinsville Sectional March 10-13. The Warriors have been grouped in the past with Collinsville, Edwardsville and Roxana, but Highland is with those three at Edwardsville this year.

Here's a look at the other three area Class AA regionals:

ALTON: The host Redbirds, big favorites in this regional a couple of times in recent years only to fall, will play Wood River at 6:30 p.m. March 3. Civic Memorial (Bethalto) will face Jerseyville immediately following that game. The title game is March 6 at 7:30 p.m.

BELLEVILLE EAST: This is a six-team field, with O'Fallon and Belleville Alhaff the top two seeds. Belleville West will face Mascoutah at 7 p.m. March 2, with Belleville East and Alton immediately following that game. The Belleville East-Mascoutah winner faces O'Fallon at 7:30 p.m. March 3, while the Belleville East-Triad winner faces Alhaff at 7:30 p.m. March 4. The title game will be March 6 at 7:30 p.m.

EDWARDSVILLE: The Kats appear to be a slight favorite to advance to their own sectional. They face Roxana in a semifinal at 7:30 p.m. March 3, with Highland facing Edwardsville at 7:30 p.m. March 4. The title game is March 6 at 7:30 p.m.

The winner of the Alton Regional will face the Belleville East winner at 7:30 March 10 at Fletcher Gymnasium, while the East St. Louis winner will face the Edwardsville winner at 7:30 March 11. The championship game is Friday, March 13, at 7:30 p.m.

The winner at Collinsville advances to the Super-Sectional Tuesday, March 17, at the SIU Arena in Carbondale against the winner of the Benton Sectional. Regional winners from Charleston, Herrin, Marion and Salem will be competing for that spot.

In Class A action, the Venice Red Devils appear to be solid favorites to advance out of the Freeburg Regional that begins Feb. 24.

Clinton Harris' team has received the No. 1 seeding in that seven-team field and will open defense of its regional crown on Feb. 25 at 6:30 p.m. when they meet the winner of the Freeburg-Lovejoy game of Feb. 24.

If the Wildcats win that game, it would set up an interesting rematch between Lovejoy and the Red Devils. Their last game ended early after a wild brawl broke out on the court Jan. 23 in Brooklyn.

Other first round games at Freeburg will be held Feb. 25, with Madison facing East St. Louis Assumption at 6:30 p.m., and Lebanon and Dupu squaring off immediately following. The winners of those two games will meet on Feb. 26 immediately following the Venice game, and the title game will be Friday, Feb. 27, at 7:30 p.m.

Madison will be trying to regain a regional crown they won 10 consecutive seasons until last year, but the Red Devils will remain the favorites, as they have all their injured players back.

The Freeburg Regional winner will join winners from Raymond (Lincolnwood), St. Elmo and Greenville in the Vandalia Sectional March 3-6. Here's a look at the pairings in those regional games:

RAYMOND (LINCOLNWOOD): Hillsboro will face Lincolnwood in the opener at 7:30 Feb. 23. The winner of that game will face Nokomis in a semifinal game at 7:30 p.m. Feb. 25. Gillespie faces Witt at 6:30 p.m. Feb. 24, with Litchfield facing Mt. Olive immediately following. The winners of those two games will meet in the other semifinal game at 7:30 p.m. Feb. 26. The title game is Friday, Feb. 27, at 7:30 p.m.

ST. ELMO: This is an eight-team regional. Quarterfinal games will be Feb. 23-24 at 6:30 and 8 p.m. Those games are, in order, St. Elmo vs. Ramsey, Alton vs. Brownstown, Kinmundy-Alma vs. Patoka and Vandalia vs. Farina (LaGrave). Semifinals will be at 7:30 p.m. Feb. 25-26, with the title game

Hockey Warriors had another great season

Sports Comment

By Dave Whaley

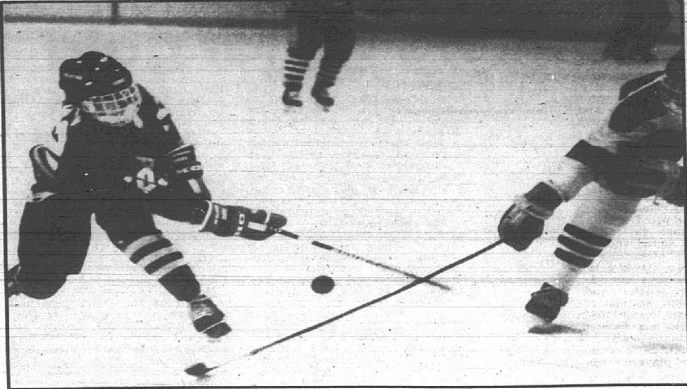

That was some exciting night of hockey at the South County Recreation Complex Monday night. There were thrills galore as the Granite City High School hockey team fought gallantly for a berth in the Mid-States Club Hockey Association semifinals this weekend at Queeny Park. But it just wasn't meant to be, as Fox's Matt Pruett directed a shot from the point through the pads of the Warriors' Collins Harlan at 1:47 of sudden death overtime to end the season, and possibly an era — for Garry Henson's team.

There were 15 seniors on this year's team, and together they collaborated for 50 league wins over the past three seasons and two trips to the St. Louis Arena. The Arena is the site of the MSCHA's St. Louis Blues Challenge Cup finals, featuring the league title game and the third place game.

If the Warriors had survived Monday night, they would have faced CBC, the overwhelming favorite to win the league championship, in the semifinals this weekend. Even if Granite City had lost, they still would have played at the Arena in the third place game March 4.

So the stakes were high Monday night, and the two teams fought tooth-and-nail the whole way. The Warriors had won their opening round series Friday night by scoring four goals in the third period to beat John Burroughs 4-1 and win the series two games to none. Lee Schreiber's five goals had led Granite City to a 9-2 win in the opener Feb. 9.

But things fell apart on Saturday at the Affton Rink when the Warriors took a 4-1 lead into the third period against Fox. But the team suffered what Henson termed "a total collapse" in the final 34 minutes and lost 6-4. So the Warriors knew they would have to win the regular 42-minute game Monday and then go overtime to win the series.

TOMMY BROWN of the Warriors knocks the puck away from a Fox High School player during Monday night's playoff game at the South County Recreation Complex.

The Warriors were without one of their big scorers when Matt Krekovich was suspended for three games for a kicking violation in the Friday game. The referees and league officials all agreed it was an unintentional act on Krekovich's part, but they said they had to enforce the rule anyway.

"That was a clear matter of a black and white rule taking precedent over the intent of the rule," Henson said. "But we had to live with it."

The regular game very much resembled the Blues' decisive win in their first round playoff series with the Minnesota North Stars last spring. The Warriors fell behind 2-0 almost before they had their skates on, and a big contingent of Fox fans was going wild. The same thing happened to the Blues in Minnesota, but Doug Gilmour almost single-handedly brought them back to a 3-3 win with five assists.

The Warriors used a strong team effort to make their comeback. They stood tough and slowly reduced Fox's momentum in the first period, and Schreiber got one of the goals back. Granite City took over in the second period by scoring three goals and controlled the rest of the game.

Fox seemed to regroup just enough to come out of a 10-minute mini-game with a 1-1 tie, then got a good bounce on their winning goal in sudden death. The Warriors had most of the good chances in overtime, but Fox goalie Andy Figas made some good saves and the Warriors shot just wide on other occasions.

"I really wanted this team to make it to the Arena," Henson said. "But they won 50 games the last three years and made two trips to the Arena, so it's a special group."

The whole team deserves credit for the 18-6-1 season, including a 12-0 mark in North Division play. But the play of three seniors — one goalie, one defenseman and one forward — deserves special mention.

Harlan developed into one of the best goalies in the area after emerging from the shadow of Tom Schneke last year. He got down on himself at times and got frustrated earlier this year when the puck often never got down to his end of the ice against some of the weaker teams. But he was there when needed and made a couple of big saves in the mini-game Monday night to keep the Warriors' hopes alive.

Schreiber was the Warriors' biggest scoring threat up front. He has a big shot and is one of the fastest and strongest skaters around. He was a threat to score every time he was on the ice and had a pair of goals Monday. And finally, defenseman Todd Hinterser, the team captain, is a dominant player on the back line. He sent a pair of Fox players running for cover with stunning big checks in the second period Monday. He is a rock on the blue line and is also a threat offensively, in addition to being the team leader. There are some college coaches interested, and he might make a good one at the collegiate level.

Warriors have 2 on road; Trojans lose, face Shoes

By Dave Whaley

Executive sports editor

One might be a little hard to get up for. The other one shouldn't. The basketball Warriors take to the road for two more games this weekend in search of the Southwestern Conference title. They will take a respite from league play on Friday when they play at Edwardsville. The Tigers are only 1-17 this year.

If the Warriors have trouble getting motivated for that one, they should be ready Saturday night when they travel to East St. Louis to face the Flyers in an SWC matchup at 8 p.m.

It will be the first appearance at East Side for the Warriors.

Three football players — Tim Hogan, Jamie Hogan and Eric Ryterski — since Granite City knocked off the fabled Flyer football team last autumn in the year's biggest upset.

The Warriors (6-1, 14-7) remain a half game behind Collinsville in the conference standings, and will likely have to win at East St. Louis to remain in that position. The Kahoks (7-1, 15-8) host Belleville West (1-6, 6-14) on Friday night. East St. Louis (5-3, 11-9) was in the conference race until last Friday night when they lost 75-74 at Alton on a last-second shot by the Redbirds' DeLeon Lavender.

But then they came back and beat Quincy on Saturday night.

said Warrior coach Don Deterding. "I had said that for some reason you're better off playing East Side on a Saturday. But they played better on Saturday than they did on Friday last week."

The Warriors will need to win Saturday, then sweep weekend games at home next weekend against Alton and Belleville West while hoping the Flyers will knock off Collinsville a week from Friday night in East St. Louis. That would give the Warriors the league title outright and they would be the only team other than Collinsville ever to win the conference three straight years.

But first, there is a game with Edwardsville at 8 p.m. Friday. And even though the Tigers are 1-17 on paper, the game still has to be played. "Edwardsville always plays us tough," Deterding said. "We beat them here last year by only a point. It seems we have the tendency to play to the caliber of our opposition."

Meanwhile, the Madison Trojans dropped another tough one on Tuesday night as Waterloo Gibault came back in the fourth quarter to take a 65-62 decision at Waterloo. The Trojans (12-10) had an 18-11 lead after one quarter and still led by two entering the fourth quarter.

But Steve Wightman, the Hawks' 6-6 center, scored 23 points and added 10 rebounds and Jay Papenberg added 16 points to lead Gibault (15-9) to the win. Lamont Johnson led the Trojans with 23 points and Otis Ware added 22.

Madison will close out the regular season with yet another tough road game tomorrow night as they travel to Teutopolis to take on the Western Shoes, ranked eighth among Class A teams in Illinois. The Shoes are 19-2. Tipoff is slated for 8 p.m.

Softball meeting this Tuesday

The Madison Parks and Recreation Department will hold its softball meeting on Tuesday, Feb. 24, at 7 p.m. at the Madison Memorial Center, 7th and Lee.

"We're not really playing very good defense as a team just yet," he said. "Our overall game has improved, our transition and passing is better, but we're still lagging a little on defense."

Individual and team competition in both Class A and Class

AA will be held all three days, so the Assembly Hall should resemble a three-ring circus most of the time.

Cahokia will represent this area in team competition, and they also advanced five individuals. Comanche coach Russ Baum said he will be concentrating on the individual competition, but Whitaker said if he were in the same position, he would probably concentrate on advancing the team.

"Cahokia has Naperville North in the quarterfinals, and that's a big drawback for them," Whitaker said. "Naperville is No. 3 in the state."

The Comanches will wrestle at 2:30 p.m. Friday, and again at 8:30 in the semifinals if they win. The third place match is at 2 p.m. Saturday, with the title meet scheduled for 8:30 Saturday night.

against the other small schools in our area," said Hampton. "But playing this team is something else."

The Eagles, as well as Metro East Lutheran and Worden, might be in Venice's conference, but they aren't in their league. Actually, Livingston seems to be by far the next-best team in the conference, as they worked the ball rather well on offense much of the night and even traded baskets with Venice for a while in the third quarter.

Paul Pogue and John Hampton each displayed good outside shooting, finishing with 23 and 21 points, respectively. Ron Hiettinger added 14.

But the Devils' firepower was too much, as Dale Turner added 21 points and eight assists. Wigfall (15 points), Vincent Harris (13) and Darryl Jackson (11) were also in double figures. Jackson, playing his first game since breaking his nose during the brawl in Brooklyn Jan. 23, added nine rebounds and four steals.

All 11 players who suited up for Venice scored. The Devils made 50 of 76 shots from the field (66 percent). Livingston was 35 of 83 (42 percent).

Thorngate Club studies bats

Clara Schillinger hosted the February meeting of the Thorngate Garden Club. A luncheon was served and the centerpieces were straw hearts trimmed with red ribbons. The hostess was assisted by her daughter, Dorothy Kinney.

Wanda Herman presided over the business meeting. The members responded to roll call with a Valentine remembrance. Pat Polley received a vase from Wanda Fitzsimmons in the traveling basket. There is to be a recipe exchange at the March meeting.

Election of officers was held and Betty King was named president; Pat Polley, vice president; June Lux, secretary; and Buella Miller, treasurer.

The Garden Club will have a booth May 16 at the fundraising event sponsored by the Old Six Mile Historical Society.

Each member received a jar of homemade jelly as a favor. The March meeting will be at the home of Wanda Herman. A report was given by June Lux about "batominiums," small constructed houses for bats. The small flying mammals have had an undeserved bad reputation and perhaps "should rank with the bluebird in public esteem and affection," she said.

"Bats have suffered a serious loss of habitat and need homes. One bat may eat as many as 600 mosquitoes in one evening. Bats have suffered a bad public image for a long time, but they don't get tangled in people's hair and seldom transmit rabies to humans. In some parts of the world, bats are hunted to the edge of extinction for food or because they are mistakenly thought to be a major cause of crop damage."

Those present at the meeting were Joyce Belfort, Enid Bohn, Jean Belhel, Lillian Delps, Wanda Fitzsimmons, Wanda Herman, Betty King, June Lux, June Markham, Buella Miller, Pat Polley, Clara Schillinger and Jane White.

Miss Gibson earned a bachelor of science degree in pharmacy from St. Louis College of Pharmacy in 1986, and is a 1989 graduate of Granite City High School. She is employed by Medicare-Gleaser Corporation of St. Louis as a registered pharmacist.

Her fiancé also received a bachelor of science in pharmacy from the St. Louis College of Pharmacy in 1986. A 1990 graduate with a bachelor of science degree in business administration from the University of Missouri-St. Louis, and a 1976 graduate of Webster Groves High School, he is employed at Barnes Hospital in St. Louis as a registered pharmacist.

One out of ten women will develop breast cancer.

Perhaps the two most frightening words to a woman are breast cancer. The killer of females, breast cancer is a disease caused by uncontrolled growth of abnormal cells in the breast tissue. But with detection, effective treatment can be started immediately, therefore improving the patient's prognosis. The survival rate among women who find cancer before it is noticeable is 97 percent.

To answer the need for early detection of breast disease, St. Elizabeth Medical Center has established the Breast Diagnostic Program, which provides mammographies at almost half the cost of such procedures being done elsewhere. A convenient diagnostic procedure, a mammogram provides patients with high quality, high sensitivity images with minimal radiation exposure. (Physician referral is necessary)

Following the guidelines by the American Cancer Society, this simple, painless exam is currently the best method of detecting breast disease. The ACS recommends all women age 35 to 40 have an initial, routine mammogram; diagnostic exams periodically between age 40 and 50; and yearly exams after age 50.

How many will detect it in time?

If you're a woman age 35 or older and would like more information, call SEMC's Breast Diagnostic Program at 798-3181

Eagles Auxiliary Valentine party

Members of Eagles Auxiliary held a Valentine party at the Eagles home with 26 members participating. Refreshments were served by hostesses Florence Stokes, Adele Wasyiak and Debbie Frazier at tables decorated in the Valentine theme with vases of red carnations and red hearts. A basket of red roses was centered on the refreshment table.

Prizes were awarded to Leona Deloye and Wasyiak. The meeting was conducted by President Linda Clayton and she reported that February has been designated as re-enrollment month; a campaign to re-enroll members who have dropped out will be conducted. The Eagles Aerie, which was instituted in 1988, will celebrate its 89th anniversary during February.

Visiting chairman Ann Konopka noted sending two get-well cards and one sympathy card to members. Members billeted favorably on one applicant for membership and an invitation was received to attend a Zone Rally in Lincoln, Ill., on March 13-16.

Exercises to music offered

The Granite City Park District will sponsor an eight-week session of aerobic exercises beginning Monday, March 9. Classes will be held on Monday and Wednesday evenings and Saturday mornings.

Those enrolled may participate in all weekly sessions or may attend any that fit into their schedule.

The cost is $7.50 for residents of the Park District and $17.50 for non-residents. Registration will begin March 2 in the Wilson Park office. Proof of residence must be presented at the time of registration in order to get the resident price.

Debbie Wicherhart and Patti Smith will instruct the class of exercises to music.

The Slimettes class is one of the district's programs offered to adults. The information number is 877-3059.
